Eiríkur... Just wondering what are your favourite drinks? Milk? Hih, hih... I love milk and Coca Cola.

Well, clean cold water right from the spring (as we here in Scandinavia are fortunate enough to be able to drink) is the true source of life it self. There is no drink in the world that can even find a second or third place... Is there really? But I must be honest to you as well... Water doesn't get me "high" and sometimes I wanna be just that! Oh yeah, like so many others I am a beer gulping Viking and when I wanna treat myself a little extra, you might find me with a big grin on my face and a Bourbon 'n Cola in my hand.

- Eiríkur.

PS: I hope you don't mean milk and Coca Cola in the same glass, Merja.
